HAPPY EASTER.

What a fabulous term it has been. Very busy with lots of exciting opportunities including sports fixtures and tournaments, singing at the Hall For Cornwall, maths lessons with Nationwide, school trips, planting for flower festivals and an Easter bonnet parade to name but a few!

Of course we also had our Ofsted inspection which we were delighted with. The new framework is extremely challenging with not very many Outstanding grades now being awarded, this made it even more special! We were also delighted that the inspectors recognised how well the team worked together- pupils, staff and parents. Long may this continue.

Here are some highlights from the report-

Only the best will do at Sandy Hill and all strive to ensure that this is achieved.

Pupils spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is woven through the curriculum and extra-curricular activities. This prepares them effectively for life in modern Britain.

Pupils do not want to miss a day at school.

The behaviour of the pupils is outstanding.

Teaching assistants have the same high expectations as teachers. They are adept at providing support to help pupils develop their independence and resilience.

Teacher's expectations are high.

Lots to look forward to in the summer term including school camps, school trips and the Y6's will be working hard towards their SATs and preparing for secondary school. We look forward to seeing you all in April.

Thank you very much for your ongoing support.

Have a fabulous holiday!
