Some of the 'Additional Comments' that we'd like to thank you for and share with our whole school community:

- The process of dealing with the pandemic is a real testimony to the leadership and teamwork in this school. A heartfelt thank you to all.
- I feel my daughter is benefiting greatly from her time at Sandy Hill Nursery.
- In regards to Sandy Hill Academy, I have nothing but good words to say about the school, the teachers and the level of teaching. Both of my children love school, have a great group of friends and have never once had any concerns about going to school.
- I would recommend the school highly to anybody who is looking for a primary school for their children.
- The school are very supportive of my child's personal circumstances. They offer extra emotional support whenever my child requires it.
- I think Sandy provides a great foundation for kids' education. From when they start in nursery, learning to write to when they leave.
- Amazing school and feel very fortunate that our children have a place there. Thank you to the whole Sandy Hill team for making it a safe, happy, prosperous environment.
- I am really happy with my child attending this school, with their very high standards, there is no other school I would rather my child attend.
- An amazing school where my son is thriving! He frequently says he 'loves school'.
- Having only started reception in September I can already see how happy my child is and how much he has already learnt and developed. The all seem really friendly and happy to help with any problems or queries we have. Very impressed and pleased we chose Sandy Hill.
- I think the school is an excellent school. I have three children that attend the school. They always look forward to coming to school and really enjoy what they learn. I also like that the headteacher is almost always at the gate in the morning and afternoon engaging with parents.
- I have seen my children thrive at this school. Everything I have ever raised has been dealt with fast and effectively. The staff are all lovely and I trust my children in their care. We are very grateful.

- We have never received such support and understanding from any school. Thank you Sandy Hill!
- My child is keen to learn and just every aspect of school life is fantastic, this is thanks to your amazing staff and dedication to each pupil.
- Nothing but praise for all the staff, online resources, help and information I've received regarding my child. Credit to you all!
- My child is full of excitement to learn and thriving at Sandy Hill Academy.
- The school has always been very reassuring and understanding with my family. My child is confident and happy to go into school and I feel the teachers will contact if any issues arise. Any questions or worries I have had the teacher has always got back to me and reassured me. I would highly recommend this school.
